

LITTLE BOB LOST

117

Susan went down to the beach and
called louder,
but still got no reply.

Then the boatswain called out.

" Bob ! Bob ! It's dinner time I "

The child did not appear, and he could not be seen running about the shore.

" He was here only a minute ago,"
James
declared.

" Where the deuce can he be ? "
John Block
said to himself, as he went towards the promontory.

Captain Gould, Fritz, and Frank were walking along the foot of the cliff.

Bob was not with them.

The boatswain made a trumpet of
his hands
and called out sevejr al times :

"Bob! Bob!"

The child remained invisible.

James came up to the captain and
the two brothers.

" You haven't seen Bob, have you ? "
he asked
in a very anxious voice. ^

" No," Frank answered.

" I saw him half an hour ago," Fritz
declared;

" he was playing with the albatross."

And all began to call him, turning in every direction.

It was in vain.

Then Fritz and James went to the
promontory,
